

Cooling off with some cool content

Happy Juneteenth and Happy Pride!

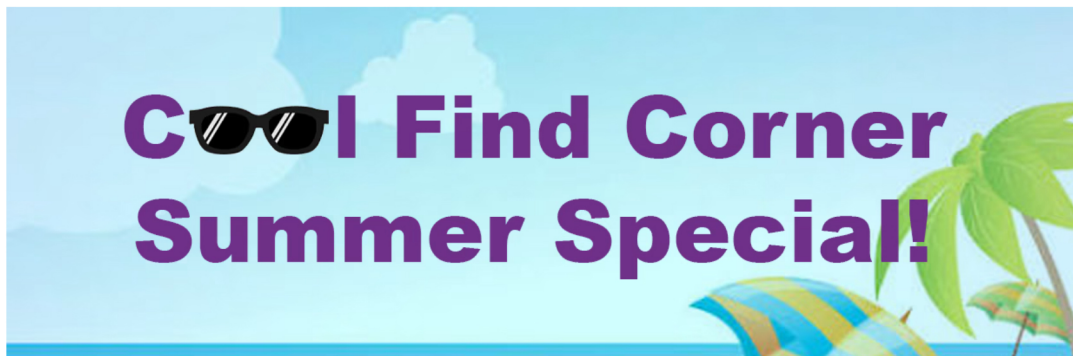

Summer is officially here and although nothing really beats reading a cozy book at the beach with a nice cold drink, why not diversify things a bit and watch some fun videos?

On this special edition of our newsletter, we let Cool Find Corner take over and recommend some fun (and licensable) videos to our readers. So sit back, grab that drink, and don't forget the sunscreen!

Follow us on social media

GBH Stock Sales & Licensing News

Sharks in Nantasket, summer plans, and questionable life jackets (cue the fireworks)

As I dug through the American Archive of Public Broadcasting and the Boston TV News Digital Library, I found so many pearls from Ten O'Clock News it was hard to pick just a few to highlight in this issue.

The Ten O'Clock News was a nightly news program produced and broadcast by GBH from 1976 to 1991. The program covered both local and national stories, featuring in-studio interviews about current events and culture.

Want to get some more summer chaos and more Ten O'Clock News? Fear not! There's still plenty to explore by hitting the buttons below.

AAPB

Boston TV

Ten O'Clock News; Sharks at Nantasket Beach

"You mean if you tell them to leave they don't just automatically do it?"

Click here to watch!

Brown sharks sighted of the coast of Nantasket Beach. Reporter Marcus Jones is on Shark Alert. He interviews MDC Police patrol, who takes the camera crew out on the water. Local are trying to spot sharks. Interviews with locals. Press conference at the New England Aquarium, who say there's nothing to fear. Editor's note: The b-roll following this edited story on the tape was entire comprised of third party footage, and so has been edited out.

Ten O'Clock News; School's Out

"I'm grounded for most of the summer, which means I have to be home in about seven."

Click here to watch!

Students' summer plans on last day of school in Brookline.

Ten O'Clock News; Charlestown children sail

*"Do you believe in those life jackets?"
"No."*

Click here to watch!

Children from Charlestown learn to sail on Boston Harbor.

Looking for media?

openVAULT

VULCAN
PRODUCTIONS

American
Archive

OF PUBLIC BROADCASTING

NEW JERSEY NETWORK

Contact us at stock_sales@wgbh.org

Click here to Unsubscribe